Dear parents and carers

I hope your young people are enjoying the Christmas break.

You may be aware that the Scottish Government announced at the end of last week that school holidays are to be extended to 11th January for pupils which is then to be followed by at least one week of remote learning.

Although we are awaiting further government guidance for schools, we wanted to let you know that we will plan to follow these guidelines.

Staff will meet on 5th January and we will be able to send you further information following this meeting. Tutors will also be in touch over the first few days of that week to see how your child is doing and to talk about a timetable for online learning.

In the meantime, if you have any queries, please contact the school by email and a member of staff will get back in touch with you.

Kind regards
Staff at Dunedin School
